Mayor Hayden suggested that the lake remain open past the normal closure date of November 15 due to the weather. Alderman Knight suggested that the gate to close the lake be moved behind the north side of the East boat ramp. This would allow the boat ramp as well as the Disc Golf Course to remain open. There would only be one route in and out and we have surveillance cameras to monitor traffic should we need to do so in the event of damage to the property. There was discussion about snow removal and the difficulty of placing gates in the location. Mayor asked that the matter be tabled until the next council meeting and asked the Alderman to go out and view the area.

Alderman Wood moved to allow the lake to remain open until the next council meeting on November 19, 2020, at which time the date of closure as well as the area of closure will be determined.
Alderman Lennon seconded the motion.
